WOULD YOUR ORGANISATION LIKE TO BECOME A PARTNER OF ICAN?

Any non-governmental organisation (NGO) is eligible to become an ICAN partner. No joining fee or annual subscription is required, though financial and other relevant contributions are very welcome. Prospective partner organisations are requested to:

- Promote ICAN and its objectives.
- Agree to the ICAN partnership pledge.
- Submit a completed ICAN application form.

Step 1. ICAN’S OBJECTIVE

The International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons (ICAN) is a global campaign coalition working to mobilise people in all countries to inspire, persuade and pressure their government to initiate and support negotiations for a treaty banning nuclear weapons. ICAN calls on states, international organisations, civil society organisations and other actors to:

- Acknowledge that any use of nuclear weapons would cause catastrophic humanitarian harm.
- Acknowledge that there exists a universal humanitarian imperative to ban nuclear weapons, even for states that do not possess these weapons.
- Acknowledge that the nuclear possessors have an obligation to eliminate their nuclear weapons.
- Take immediate action to support a multilateral process of negotiations for a treaty banning nuclear weapons.

Step 2. ICAN MEMBERSHIP PLEDGE

By joining ICAN, partner organisations agree to:

- Promote ICAN’s objective of a treaty banning nuclear weapons in their work and identify publicly with ICAN.
- Keep ICAN informed of their plans and activities in support of ICAN’s objective and operate non-violently.

By joining ICAN, partner organisations are entitled and encouraged to:

- Sign up to ICAN’s e-mail list of partner organisations to receive campaign updates and information about decisions of the ICAN International Steering Group and request he ICAN International Steering Group to consider any campaign-related issue.
- Request, use and publicise ICAN material in accordance with ICAN’s communication policies, and seek technical, financial, and strategic support from the ICAN International Steering Group and the ICAN International Staff Team.
